KNOW THY DESTINY.
Madame E. F. Thompson, the great English astrologist, clairvoyant and psychometrist, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thompson possesses such a power of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry and by an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychometre, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can attest. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive a picture and desired information by return mail. All communications sacredly confidential. Address in confidence, Madame E. F. Thompson, P. O. box 223, Hudson, N. Y.

LOVE AND AGE.

I played with you 'mid cowslips glowing.
When I was six and you were four;
When garlands weaving, flower-balls throwing.

Were pleasures soon to please no more,
Through groves and meads, o'er grass and heather,
With little playmates, to and fro.

We wandered hand and hand together,
But that was sixty years ago.

You grew a lovely roseate maiden,
And still our early love was strong;
Still with no care our days were laden.

They glided joyfully along:
And I did love you very dearly—
How dearly, words want power to show;

I thought your heart was touched as nearly:
But that was fifty years ago.

Then other lovers came around you,
Your beauty grew from year to year,
And many a splendid circle found you

The centre of its glittering sphere.
I saw you then first vows forsaking,
On rank and wealth your vows bestow;

O then I thought my heart was breaking,
But that was forty years ago.

And I lived to wed another;
No cause she gave me to repine;
And when I heard you were a mother,

I did not wish the children mine.
My own young flock, in fair progression,
Make up a pleasant Cincinnatian row;

My joy in them was past expression;
But that was thirty years ago.

You grew a matron plump and comely,
You don't in fashion's brightest blaze;
My earthly lot was far more homely;

But I, too, have my festal days.
No merrier eyes have ever glistened,
Around the hearthstone's wintry glow;

Than when my youngest child was christened;
But that was twenty years ago.

Time past. My eldest girl was married,
And I am now a grandsire gray;
One pet of four years old I've carried,

Among the wild-flowers meads to play.
In our old fields of childish pleasure,
Where now and then, the cowslips blow,

She filled her basket's ample measure—
And this is not ten years ago.

But though first love's impassioned blindness
Has passed away in colder light,
I still have thought of you with kindness.

And shall do till our last good-night.
The ever-rolling silent hour,
Will bring a time we shall not know,

When our young days of gathering flow'rs
Will be a hundred years ago.

"RECONSTRUCTION."

Opinion of Bill Arp on Georgia,
Joe Brown, Pap Thomas and the Sherman Bill.
[From the Rome Courier.]

ROME, BIG SHANTY TERRITORY, No 3.
March, 8th, 1867.

MR. EDITOR: My intention was to have remained in dignified obscurity the small remnant of my miserable day's, but my friends Bob Hyde, Sam. McCracken, Tip and other respectable gentlemen of all sexes and both colors, seem to be disheveled about the times, and insist on my views about the momentous state of our sufferin country. The good people of Atlanta have got shaky in the knees; and its the duty of every good citizen to keep the disease from spreadin if he can. I hav't been to Washington, nor been playin sentinel in a watchtower, but my observation convinces me there is a terrible fuss on hand about something. Politics look squally and alarmin. Bill Sherman overrun the country and destroyed and carried away our property, and now his brother John is finishin up the job by robbin us, of the rights and liberties our forefathers won. General Thomas is playin Vantoun with his 21 orders—puttin harmless boys in the barracks for tableaun with an old rebel flag—accusin us of all the crimes in the decalogue; such as murder, larceny, rape, arson, burglary, bigamy, perjury and suicide, throwin up in our teeth the magnanimity of our conquerors, as bein our safety-valve from the death of Beelzebub. Good gracious what an awful people we are! And now comes Joseph the sentinel, with his long winded message of consolation, telling us how we may flee from the wrath to come—skeerin the people to death, and gettin everything in a stew. What made him in such a hurry? why didn't he keep silence for a few days, until the veto was signed, and the bill was passed? Why didn't he give Mr. Jenkins a chance? If the times was so perilous, why didn't he go and see Mr. Jenkins and give him his opinion in private and save all this excitement? Mr. Jenkins is the Governor; he is the sentinel on the watchtower; he's the pilot of the old ship; he's the people's choice. He can call the Legislature when its necessary. If he is in doubt about it, he can consult with Rankin and Cobb, and Hill and Cooper, and Hardman and Gibson, and Brown, and decide what ought to be done, and the people will be satisfied. But while the ship is in a storm let all the deck hands keep silence. The word will come from the Captain soon enough.

May be that Joseph feels sorter responsible for the fix he's got us in. May be he's repentin for the didos he cut up, and the seeds of discord he sowed during the war; but I doubt it. I don't think his ambition or his vanity sees anything but his own importance. It looks like he thought the Capital was moved to Atlanta and he was Governor still. He's afraid the people will think he's dead; and just as soon as a big thing happens, and little before he clutches the occasion—seizes the opportunity, delivers his message, stirs up the people, sets the Gate City in a ferment, and gets his name in the Herald and Tribune. Joe Brown, a whine, big-leader, conspicuous, lame, history, Mr. Jenkins, nowhere, Milledgeville gone up, Joseph E. running the machine, in Atlanta.

Well, I don't know what is at the bottom of all this, but I am afraid that while Joseph was in Washington, somebody carried him on to a high mountain, and showed him a Kingdom or two, and he fell down and worshipped. These little Kingdoms that a man sometimes sees from the top of a mountain are mighty demoralizing.

But I notice all this fuss which Joseph has kicked up is confined to the towns and cities, where a heap of folks live, who haven't got much of anything to do. The farmers don't know much about it and care less—the whole concern is a god-send to some folks. I know an old word out politician who has been polking around for six months, trying to revive the Democratic party for a livin, and now he's in his element. Parties are formin and the whole hack is in glory. He's sorter like the New Era as yet—he won't take a side, he won't join issue, he won't commit himself, he's keeping an open rear as the New Era says. (I wish that paper would take an astrigent.) but my friends, we've got nothing to be ashamed of.

Since the war our pursuits have been peaceful and honorable. We needn't humiliate ourselves through fear of what humankind can do us. If the Radicals intend to confiscate us they will do it, and no acceptance of Sherman's bill will prevent it. If they want our cabbages, they are going to have 'em. If they ride over one tax they will over another. If they disregard Mr. Johnson's great argument, they'll disregard anything. I don't know how it is generally, but there ain't an unpardoned rebel in this county, and if they confiscate they have got to declare the pardons all void. Nobody knows what they won't do, or when they will quit doing it, and my advice is to suffer and be strong, endure everything and accept nothing. All is lost save honor. Hold up your manhood. Don't lick the hand that's raised to strike the blow. Joe Brown's banner says, "all is lost save honor, and that is only tolerable I thank you, it grows puny and weak." He says we can have representation in Congress. Who by? A man who can take the test oath, and can control the nigger vote. Who wants such representation? How long before he would join the Radicals and go in for confiscation? If he controlled the nigger vote he'd promise 'em land or anything else. Demagogues have always controlled the ignorant white, and demagogues will control the ignorant blacks. Who controls the nigger influence in Tennessee?—why, Brownlow and his party. Tennessee has done just what Joe Brown wants us to do, and now look at her and weep—a nigger candidate running for Governor.

But suppose we had representation, and had elected all good men, fair men, what could they do for us? Just nothing at all. With the present Radical majority all our votes wouldn't undo anything that has been done, and with a Radical President they could do as much more as they please. Just let 'em all alone, give 'em rope, more rope; history is repeating itself, the crisis will come some time, tyranny and oppression must run its course; Joe Brown's programme won't stop it. One of his resolutions made my head swim. I felt like taking chloroform. He would make the whole Yankee nation believe we loved 'em like brothers and wanted 'em to come out South, and let us hug 'em. Well, all that sorter stuff is played out. There ain't a hundred men in the State that has any more respect for a Radical than a hyena, and Joe Brown knows it. But the good Lord knows our hearts, and fondly we cling to those moderate men of the North who would save us from the humiliation that awaits us. Let a kind word be spoken to subjugated rebel and the warm blood quickens in the veins.

Oh, but here are the Union Leagues, somebody says, what are they going to do with us? Never mind, my friends, the Union Leagues ain't a go in to hurt nobody. They are made of flesh and blood like we are, and they are citizens, and their fate will be our fate. They are as much disgusted at Sherman's bill as anybody. They are our neighbors and our friends, and if there is some bad men among 'em, there is enough of the good to make 'em do right. So keep quiet and be easy, and the Union Leagues are not going to trouble you. If they want to save their own, it don't follow that they want to steal yours.

But Joseph is afraid we can't stand military government. Well, I know its humiliating, withering, crushing; but we have stood it, and can try it a while longer. We can do it till we can do better. Military Government ain't the cause of our poverty and distress. Its a government higher than Thomas, or Sherman or Sheridan. Its the loss of crops, the want of rain. The military never stopped the corn from growing, and there's just as much in one platform as another. If the Good Lord will only bless us with abundant harvests, everything will go on smooth enough with the humble and honest people who drives the plow and hoe the corn. If they prosper, everybody else will too, if they mind their own business. We will have to quit talking so much, and quit writing altogether—muzzled lips and a gagged press. I've done took warnin myself, and quit. Had my life insured in the Knickerbocker, and the policy wont allow me to expose myself, to jump into unnecessary peril. The military can outwrite us anyhow. Folks say the pen is mightier than the sword, but you put 'em both together, and they'll flank a man out of his liberty, and may be his life, in double quick. The Mayor of this town had a little billet doin with Gen. Thomas the other day, and come out second best, though it wasn't an open field nor a fair fight. I thought myself that 21 order must be a hoax, got up by Brick Pomeroy, or somebody, and was lookin for the General to come out in a card denyin of it, but I soon found that it was genuine Robesperean document. I still think his posterity will it some twenty years hence.

Well, I was mighty mad. I would have given a hundred dollars to have played Vantoun with him one hour, just to have been turned loose in the papers, all free; no gag, no jail, no barracks, no bayonets, no guard. I would have got such a grin on him for the next six months as would have made everybody except Brick Pomeroy forget that Beast Butler stole spoons. "Livin on their magnanimity?" I tell you that got me, when I knew there wasent enough magnanimity in a ship load of all such to support a poor Reb twenty-four hours. Magnanimity! My opinion is they've lost the seed, and don't know now what the commodity is. I was as full of epitaph as Brownlow is of pisen. Language comes to me spontaneous; regular hidelifters, that would have peeled the bark from a man's carcass like skinnin an alligator. But you see I was in the cautious state, and had to smother my feelings. I think I should have gone up with spontaneous combustion if my wife hadn't broke the spell with her comic scenes. She is an amusing and interestin woman, but much given to music in these days of numerous and lively offspring; but just as soon as order 21 come out she hunted up the "gray jacket," and the "conquered banner," and jest such a solo soiree I have 21 times a week, was never heard in Big Shanty before. She seems to take delight in lettin the rebel flag on the title page "see the light," and flaunts it about in my face because I call myself a Union man. She says that part of the order about General Hanson's remains was found on scripture, and so was Phil Sheridan's about Gen. Johnson's for Solomon says in Ecclesiastes: "that a living dog is better than a dead lion." My opinion is that it will be impossible to harmonize these women durin this century. Such orders as 21 will cut off all hope of it. I think if General Thomas hadn't been a Virginian, he wouldn't have issued it. I've heard the General and Edward Johnson were both powerful secesh, and got mighty impatient because the Old Dominion was so slow in movin. The General said all the good offices would be gobbled up before she seceded. Well, they say old General Scott got hold of 'em about this time, and took 'em up into a high mountain, and showed 'em a Kingdom or two, and the General fell down and worshipped, and Ed Johnson wouldn't. I tell you, my friends, a man ought to be careful about goin up onto these dangerous mountains, and this leads me to remark, we ought to petition Mr. Johnson to put over Big Shanty a General who stood square to his State.

Hope for the best, my friends. Don't imagine you see panthers and injuns because we are in a Territory. Don't mistake a Bureau track for a bear sign. Don't fear it will be sickly because Florida is hitched on to our diggins. Attend to your business, keep off a high mountain, and all will be well. I would say more, but my wife's music has begun. Yours respectfully,
BILL ARP.

P.S.—I date my letter from the Big Shanty, as I hear these three "diggins" are to have that name. Let us all be thankful we know where we are. For two years it's been doubtful whether we were in or out. My opinion now is that we are out, and I heard a female voice say whoopee! B. A.

Bourbon County Politics.

We understand that R. T. Davis, Esq., the worthy and eminent representative from Bourbon in the State Legislature will probably not be an aspirant for re-election this summer, and we learn from the Cynthiana News that our genial, clever and talented friend and brother editor, John G. Craddock, of the Paris True Kentuckian, is spoken of by the Bourbon Democracy to represent them at the ensuing session. We sincerely trust that this rumor may be well founded. We know Mr. Craddock well, and we know that he would be a valuable requisition to the Legislature if his services can be secured. We want true and tried men, and he is one of them, and in looking around to award men for political services, as much if not more merit can be found in the editorial fraternity than elsewhere. Why should not an editor occasionally be remembered in the distribution of political honors? His thoughts and feelings are known to all. We know whether to trust him better than almost any other kind of man, because he is in a position of constant trial. And the Democracy of Bourbon owe a good deal to John Craddock's liberality. He has given his time and his money in sustaining an excellent newspaper organ, for them, which cannot have returned him much. Few newspapers in this State are paying enterprises, and the honor of a seat in the Legislature is but a small reward for the faithful and efficient services of an editor. If the Bourbon people are as generous toward you as you have been to them, we shall salute you, Craddock, next winter.—Frankfort Yeoman.

It is proper before commenting on the above to state that Mr. Craddock is at this time absent on a visit to his relatives and friends in Missouri. We know, however, that he will be highly gratified at the complimentary mention of his name by his too partial friend of the Yeoman. We are aware that Mr. Craddock has been urged by numerous friends to allow the use of his name as a candidate for the Legislature, and were we to undertake to interpret the wishes, feelings and aspirations of our absent friend, we would say that to represent the county of Bourbon, where he has so long resided, and with which his interests are so closely identified, would fill the highest measure of his ambition. Nor is Mr. Craddock unworthy of the position to which the partiality of his friends would elevate him. Of strict integrity, of large political experience familiar with all the wants and fully alive to the interest of the county, he would prove a faithful efficient and able representative. Of Mr. Craddock's political views, it is needless to speak; he has uttered them so often through the Democratic press of the county that our people are familiar with them. For years he has been an earnest, working Democrat, devoting his time, his means and his energies to the success of the party. But more especially as an editor has he contributed to build up the Democracy. We are not unmindful of the general impression that editors are expected to aid to preferment all who aspire to political position while they are to remain in the back ground. This is alike unjust the people and to editors, who as a general thing, being conversant with state, national and local politics, are peculiarly fitted for the duties devolved upon legislators. But too often editors are like the candle, which while illuminating others, consumes itself. We earnestly trust that the Democracy of the county will see to it that they do not discard, without due consideration, one whose past services at least are entitled to recognition at their hands.

Should, however, the Democracy of the county deem that the interests of the party require the selection of another standard bearer, we know John Craddock well enough to predict that no one will labor with greater alacrity than he for the nominee of the party whoever he may be, and we pledge the gallant and patriotic Democracy that the True Kentuckian, whether its trusted editor bears aloft the old Democratic banner, or whether he fights in the ranks, as he has always done, will continue with whatever of ability it can command to wage an unceasing war in behalf of the true principles of Constitutional government and against Radicalism in whatever shape it may appear.—True Kentuckian.

A POOR MAN'S WISH.—I asked a student what three things he most wished. He said—"give me books, health, and quiet, and I care for nothing more."

I asked a miser and he cried—"money, money, money."

I asked a pauper and he faintly said—"bread, bread, bread."

I asked a drunkard, and he loudly called for strong drink.

I asked the multitudes around me, and they lifted up their confused cry, in which I heard the words, "wealth, fame, and pleasure."

I asked a poor man, who had long borne the character of an experienced Christian. He replied that all his wishes could be met in Christ. He spoke seriously, and I asked him to explain. He said—"I greatly desire these three things; first, that I may be found in Christ; secondly, that I may be like Christ; thirdly, that I may be with Christ."

I have thought much of his answer and the more I think of it the wiser it seems.

The Radicals in Congress are on the track to another outrage upon the Constitution. A resolution was offered on Saturday by Mr. Wilson, prohibiting any State from excluding any one from the right of suffrage on account of color. This is taking the whole question of suffrage from the States where the Constitution leaves it, and puts the power to adjust the question in the hands of Congress, where it does not belong. If Congress should usurp this power and sustain its usurpation, everything with a dark skin, negroes, Indians, Chinese, Malays and Japanese, would have the right to vote. What next? It will be commending to the lips of the people of the North the poisoned chalice which they are thrusting upon the South.—Lou. Cou.

In Troy, New York, the other day, an adroit thief opened a show case at the door of Mark's jewelry store, and carried off a tray of diamond rings valued at $25,000. The case, it appears, was not locked, and a passing crowd enabled the robber to secure his prize without being noticed by persons in the store. The loss was not discovered until the show-case was taken in at the close of business.

An attempt to swindle a Life Insurance Company out of $15,000 is brought to light in Chicago. The plan embraced a bogus death, fictitious will, stolen corps, &c. The party insured and who was reported dead is a man named Richard Rainforth. Two other persons, Dr. Charles B. Kendall and a lawyer named T. W. Fuller, both of that city, are supposed to be implicated in the affair, which is soon to undergo a judicial investigation.

The records of the Post-office Department show that in the dead letter bureau there have been six hundred thousand dead letters destroyed in the last year, in which were inclosed two hundred and sixty thousand dollars in drafts, which were returned to the owners thereof.

The Trial of John Curry.

The citizens of our county will remember that in the early part of February last, our town and community were thrown into a state of very great excitement in reference to the killing of Nicholas Broadwell, by his son John Curry. The crime of Patricide which was unknown to the Roman law, had been committed in our town and that too as most persons thought without provocation or excuse.

The deceased was (although belonging to the colored race) a man of excellent character for honesty, industry and sobriety, and never failed to command the respect and friendship of those who knew him well.

At the last term of our Criminal Court, the Grand Jury found and reported an indictment against John Curry for Murder. Thursday the 21st ult., was set for the trial of the case; and as the prisoner was in jail, where he had been closely confined since the crime was committed, he was brought into Court by the Jailor, and a jury of twelve impartial and intelligent men impaneled to sit in judgment upon the case. Owing to the excitement which had prevailed, a jury was obtained more readily than we expected. John pled to the indictment, "Not Guilty," when the jury were sworn to try the issue. The Commonwealth was represented by Wm. C. Marshall Esq., of Augusta, and the Deft., by Hon. A. H. Ward, who had associated with him J. S. Boyd and J. Q. Ward Esqs.

After hearing the testimony for the Commonwealth and for the prisoner, the argument was opened by Hon. A. H. Ward for the defence. His speech was only about thirty minutes in length but was replete with ability and eloquence and was delivered in the impressive style which is peculiar alone to Mr. Ward.

The argument was closed by Mr. Marshall who in a pointed and eloquent speech of about twenty-five minutes, showed to the jury that from testimony before them there certainly was no justifiable provocation for the killing, and that the prisoner must be a murderer, he alluded to the importance of punishing crime, to prevent crime, to vindicate the supremacy of the law, that good citizens might be protected in their lives and property. That the death of this prisoner would be a warning to others of his color who had so lately been turned loose upon society, that they must not violate the law, lest its punishment might fall upon them.

After the argument was closed the jury retired to their room, and at night were put in charge of the Sheriff, and were not allowed to separate, or to talk to any body in reference to the case under their consideration, nor to suffer any other person to talk about it in their presence. The jury deliberated upon the case until Friday afternoon when they returned into the Court room and rendered a verdict of "GUILTY." The prisoner was sent back to Jail where he remained until Saturday morning, when he was brought before the Judge to receive the sentence of death. The Judge then proceeded to the performance of his painful duty and said: "John you have been indicted by the Grand Jury of the County for the murder of your father Nicholas Broadwell, you have been tried by a jury of the County, who selected by you through your counsel, you have plead 'Not Guilty' to the indictment and have been defended by competent, able and zealous counsel and the jury after lengthy and deliberate reflection upon the case have said by their verdict that you are guilty as charged in the indictment. It now remains for me to perform the painful duty to render judgment against you in accordance with the verdict. Have you any thing to say why the judgment of the Court should not be pronounced upon you, if you have you can now speak out with perfect freedom.

The prisoner responded in a low tone by saying: "Every body wanted me hung here and I don't think I got a fair trial." The Judge then said further: "Have you any legal cause to assign why the judgment of the Court should not now be rendered?" The prisoner by a slight shake of the head indicated that he had nothing more to say, when the Judge proceeded: "It is therefore the judgment of the Court that you be taken hence to the county jail and there safely kept until the 3d day of May 1867, when you will be taken therefrom by the Sheriff to some suitable place prepared by him for that purpose, and there hung by the neck until you are dead, and may God have mercy on your soul."

Thus has terminated a case which has created the greatest interest in our community. May the sad fate of this poor wretch be a warning to all others and may our County never again be outraged by the commission of such a terrible crime.

Our Legislature---Gold Bill.

After Sixty days of sore affliction this State has been relieved of a political sore.

This Legislature, elected by the bayonets of a usurped power, refused to support that power; or, in other words, refused to support Andrew Johnson while trying to stem the current of Northern fanaticism. It refused to pass a Bill for the benefit of the Blind Asylum. It refused to pass a bill to alleviate those dying of starvation in her bordering States. It refused to appropriate a mite to bury the dead, of the gallant Commonwealth, whose bones now lie, bleaching on Southern soil. They refused to increase the salaries of the members of the Legislature, but passed a Bill that they, themselves, should be paid in gold. The Governor signed the Bill and as a compliment for his generosity they passed a bill for his benefit, allowing him the sum of $5,000 in gold for extra services rendered we suppose.

This Legislature has set a precedent that will ultimately injure the State to the amount of millions. Every soldier who enlisted from the State, in State regiments, is entitled to his bounty in Gold. From the Governor down to the constable is as much entitled to their gold as this egotistical body. Elected by the bayonet they did not look to their constituents for support. The Democratic element, as a majority stood side by side with the Abolitionists for the passage of this Bill. They have placed their names upon a record that will be referred to hereafter with shame, with reproach and dishonor.

The counties of Bracken, Pendleton and Grant, form a Senatorial district, and we understand that there are several candidates for the post of Senator. Among them we notice the names of C. Duncan, Esq., of Pendleton, and Thornton Marshall from Bracken. From Grant we hear that a galvanized democrat, so-called, named McManama, is urging his claims for a seat in the Senate, from that district. He is not fit for the place, and is not entitled to any confidence from the democracy in that district or elsewhere. Grant should propose a good democrat.

Yesterday we received a call from our friends of the "Faithful" Capt. W. D. Gay, of Montgomery county, and A. E. Eshelman. They are looking as well, as when we met them last in the mountains.

Congress has taken the advice of the Cleveland Herald, and adjourned, for fear it did not that Butler would in a few days, by his talk, break up the Republican party. Such an event is inevitable, any way, but Butler, by his speeches, would have precipitated the crisis. But it is no use, Mr. Herald, to try to keep off the impending fate. It has got to come, sooner or later. Critical observers already notice in the Republican organization the "hectic flush," the "hollow cough," the "terrible internal pains," the "wan attenuated countenance and general emaciated appearance which betokens a victim who is in the last stages of consumption. As an alleviation of the pain, and to put the patient out of his misery, we don't know but that the Radicals would have done better to have submitted to the rough prescription of Dr. Butler.

How REFRESHING---Are the April showers, they nourish into life the opening buds, and renew all vegetation. But yet it is a time of the year when there is great danger of taking Cold from exposure to the weather. Coo's Cough Balsam is excellent for Coughs and Colds, Sore Throat and all Pulmonary Complaints.

While Coo's Dyspepsia Cure is invaluable in Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and all diseases of the stomach and bowels.

The Lindell Hotel, at St. Louis, the largest building of the kind in the United States, was destroyed by fire, the night of the 30th March. The total loss by the fire is estimated at $1,600,000; the total insurance is about one-third the amount of the loss.

From the Lexington Observer & Reporter. FARMERS CLUB.---On Saturday last the Farmers Club met at their room over Beard's stable at the usual hour---10 o'clock, and from the good attendance it would seem that considerable interest was felt in the success of the organization. There were five additions made to the Club at the last meeting. The subject for discussion was plowing, and it was ably argued by several of the members. We append a synopsis of the proceedings.

The President, Col. E. Hill called the house to order and then proceeded to dispose of the regular business. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Tipton the following gentlemen were received as members of the Farmers Club: C. A. Farra, W. D. Young, D. C. Wickliffe and Dr. W. Frazer.

Mr. J. J. Haden, Chairman of the Committee to try the Hills Plow, submitted the following report which was received, and the Committee discharged.

The Committee to examine and report upon the practical utility of the Hills riding and plowing attachment, after a thorough test in the field with some three different plows, respectfully submit the following report:

That they are of the opinion that it is a labor-saving invention, and that the plowing done with the "attachment" was of a superior character, far exceeding the work done in the ordinary manner.

That there was no perceptible increase in the draft of the plow when working with the attachment, on the contrary, we think that from the great steadiness with which the plow is held, the regularity in the depth of the plowing, the uniformity in the width of the furrow slice, tends to lessen rather than increase the draft.

We believe that any boy who can ride and guide a team can do more plowing in a day than can be done by a man in the ordinary way, and do it better.

While we regard the riding part a success, we are of the opinion that it increases the draft, yet on trial we found that two horses did the work, one of the Committee weighing 190 pounds riding the plow cutting four inches in depth, in a field clear of obstructions, and for a man too old or from other causes incompetent to follow the plow, we would regard it as invaluable.

In conclusion, your Committee with great confidence in its practical utility cannot commend it too highly to the farmers of the county.

Forty years ago the United States had but three miles of railroad in operation. They have now 34,341 miles in operation, and 15,943 miles building. The value of the completed roads $1,502,464,083, an average of $40,723 a mile. On an average, four miles of road per day are now built in the United States.

Great Democratic Gains.
INCREASED MAJORITIES.

Special Dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer.
Columbus, Ohio, April 1.

Columbus sends greetings. Democratic majority about 500---three times as great as two years ago. The marshal and city solicitor have a still larger majority. Council stands six Democrats to three Republicans.

Chillicothe, April 1.

We have carried the city by large majorities. Every ward Democratic. Marshal's majority 590---a gain over last year of full 250.

Fremont, April 2.

The city of Fremont has elected the entire ticket.

Bucyrus, April 1.

Bucyrus Township 151 majority. Democratic gain, 65.

Newark, April 1.

The "Democracy" carried Newark City and Township to day, by the largest majorities ever yet received here. Not one Radical elected last spring. The Radicals elected "two" of three Councilmen to-day. All Democratic candidates were elected by a total majority of over 300. Majority in the township nearly 400. Great gains.

SECOND DISPATCH.

Newark, April 1.

Large Democratic majorities in the township, and in every ward of the City of Newark. Five hundred and fifty Democratic gain over last fall.

City Marshal, Councilman, and all the rest of the ticket elected.

How are you, Nigger Suffrage?

Connecticut goes Democratic.

The returns from this glorious old State indicate beyond a doubt that English, Democrat, is elected Governor by 51 majority, and three Democratic Congressmen out of four. Three cheers for old Connecticut.

CATTLE---There has been but a light supply on the market during the past week, the aggregate receipts not having exceeded 81 head. Notwithstanding this, the market has been quite dull. Our quotations are as follows: First quality, $7.25 @ 7.50 per 100 lbs.; second quality, $6.50 @ 7.00; third quality, $5.50 @ 5.75.

SHEEP---The demand for sheep continues light, and prices about the same as for several weeks past---say $6.00 per 100 lbs., according to quality. During the past week 106 head were sold at the foregoing figures.

HOGS---Market dull. The sales during the past week amounted to 184 head at prices ranging from $6.50 @ 7.75 per 100 lbs., according to quality.

GREAT WESTERN STOCK YARD.

The arrivals at these yards have been---since our last report---by the I. C. & L. Railroad: 5 cars cattle, 2 cars hogs, 1 car mules, 1 car horses, by the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad: 2 cars cattle, 4 cars hogs; 1 car sheep.

As will be seen the arrivals have been very light, and in consequence the prices advanced 25 per cent, on all grades of stock.

Beef cattle sold from 5 1/2c. to 8c.; shipping cattle 8 1/2c., gross.

Hogs sold from 7c. to 8c., with a good shipping demand.

Sheep sold from 5 1/2c. to 7 1/2c.; very few No. 1 in the market.

Horses continue about as at our last report; very few in the market.

Mules are scarce and high; demand good; prices range from $125 to 175; 2-year old colts from $90 to 125.

Col. T. L. Jones, Democratic candidate for Congress, will address the Democracy of Harrison County, at the Court-house, in Cynthiana, next Monday. Come one, come all.

Rev. W. P. Yeaman will preach at Union next Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Lucy Devers, has rented the Harrison hotel and will open in a few days.

Mr. C. A. Webster commences his new brick business house as soon as the weather will permit.

Mr. C. G. Land, will get into his new store next week, so we are informed.

Workmen are engaged in laying the brick for the new jail house.

Berry Bedford, of Talbot's Station, is about to put up a new and splendid residence on his place.

Mr. J. J. Parish will commence building a new store house on Main street, for C. T. Dellinger, next week.

A new improvement, in the shape of fine and substantial curbing is being laid in front of C. Walton's and J. Spohn's residences.

The freight train up from Covington, on Monday morning last, run over and killed three head of cattle, belonging to Caleb Walton.

R. C. Wherret, is now in New York city, laying in his new spring stock of dry goods. Quick sales and small profit is the motto now.

Cyrus Cook, Esq., purchased a fine pair of mules last Monday, for which he paid five hundred dollars. Good mules and good prices.

We are authorized to announce F. E. McMillin a candidate for Constable of the Leesburg district, subject to the Democratic convention. April 4-21

Joseph Shawhan, our enterprising merchant tailor, has been absent about a week in New York city purchasing new spring goods, which he proposes to bring here very soon, and sell at the lowest cash prices.

Now is the time to fish; so says Dr. Hedges an old and experienced angler. Licking is full of fine bass, newlights and perch. No better fun than to camp out and do an entire week's fishing.

The regular meeting of the Cynthiana Literary Institute will commence next Tuesday night, and will be held regularly thereafter, by order of the President. Every member is expected.

Horse thieves are at work again in this region. A fine horse belonging to Geo. Williams, was taken from his pasture last week, and no traces of the thief has been discovered.

Leesburg, March 1st, 1867.

Mr. Editor:—

Permit us to ask Wm. Lucas, of this district, if he will permit his friends to use his name as a candidate for the Legislature subject to a decision of the democratic convention. If he will he will receive the support of

MANY VOTERS.

Samuel B. Ewalt sold his fine stallion, "Cromwell," to C. M. Penn, of Bourbon, for $500. He is a thoroughbred horse, with all the stamina and spirit, which characterizes a horse of good condition of his kind, and makes them desirable.

A series of meetings will be held at the St. Edwards (Catholic) church in this place, commencing on Monday next and lasting until Friday. Every morning high mass will be held, and every evening at early candle light a sermon will be delivered by a missionary, and on Sunday following, grand high mass will be held, together with preaching.

Last week, we met our friend, J. C. Barlow, just from the South. He brought the remains of his brother, E. J. Barlow, who died at the residence of Silas Corbin, near Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 24th, 1863, from disease contracted in the Confederate Army. He was interred on Monday March 25th, on the estate of his grandfather, Col. Cantril, in Bourbon County.

The following has been handed to us by some gentlemen of our city, with the assurance that it is sound on the improvement question, such as paying and encouragement of emigration. If such is the case, we go for the entire ticket. We want more houses, more pavements, more industries, more people, and more democracy. For Mayor, G. Lemons; for Councilmen, J. S. Withers, Luther Vanhook, John Spohn, C. B. Cook, C. T. Dellinger, Wm. Smyth, Thos. English and C. G. Land.

What is the use of removing your hat, if you do not intend to tarry?
What is the use of your wooing a maid, if you do not intend to marry?
And what is the use of ladies not wearing elegant and fashionable garments, when they can buy such beautiful goods at such low prices at the well known use of Redmon and Lair, Paris Ky.

Appearances indicate that spring will come again, that grass will grow green, the trees put forth their foliage, and the flowers bloom as usual. This we will be pleased to see, as we have been promised a large quantity of bouquets. Give us spring and give us flowers:

"Oh! what tender thoughts beneath,
Those silent flowers are lying;
Hid within the mystic wreath,
My love hath kissed in tying."

The clerk of the county-court has issued the following marriage licences during the past month: J. Tuney, to Louisa Lawson, Martin Petty, to Sarah E. Fishback, A. D. Barnett, to Mary F. Old, J. C. Martin, to Sarah A. Renaker, J. H. Stewart, to Mary S. Rulen, J. O. Hill, to Sarah E. Thorp, J. M. Thorp, to Mrs. Jane Rowlings, J. E. Taylor, to Mrs. Margaret Shawhan, Jno. M. Burns, to Mary E. Martin, S. Whalen to Ann Langley, Wm. H. Furrow, to Elizabeth V. Wolf, J. N. Walker to Buena Vista Lairl.

We are pleased to see that the enterprising citizens of Cynthiana, have a spirit for patents as well as improvements, and not among the least noticeable of the wonders of the present day, is that of Shannon's patent Lantern, of the firm of Shannon and Turley, of the tin-ware and stove establishment on Main street, Cynthiana. The lantern is made of tin and glass, and is wonderful on account of its simplicity, and cheapness. It is calculated for candles or oil. Large numbers are being shipped from this place for the Cincinnati market and elsewhere, and we learn that the manufacturers are receiving orders from all parts of the Union. It is the best and cheapest lantern ever invented.

Bowen & Son shipped 500 barrels of whiskey to Cincinnati last week, which was sold for 90 cents per gallon over the tax. This was No. 1 corn Whisky. On a visit to the Bowen distillery, the other day, we were astonished at the large and voluminous stream of liquid fire (whisky) that poured out of the worm, and was unusually surprised at the song that we heard fall from the lips of the merry men engaged. As the stream gushed out furiously, their song run thusly:

"Come thou fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing thy praise,
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Calls for songs of loudest praise."

We believe Mr. Craddock could be indemnified for his stolen whiskey, if he were to call on Bowen and Son.

MARRIED.

In Cincinnati, on Tuesday, March 19th, at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. F. J. Gerald, Mr. Jno. Kirk to Miss Alice Dedrick, all of that city.

Attendants, Miss Liddia Dedrick, and Mr. Erwin Haines.
We wish the happy couple a thousand blessings. May prosperity and happiness attend them through life.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

The American Piano Forte Trade.

As an item of interest to the thousands of piano buyers in the North-west, we publish the following article from the New York Tribune of February 23d:

Twenty-five years ago the number of pianos made in America, was exceedingly small. The workmanship of these with few exceptions, was inferior to that of Europe. Musical taste and musical demand grew rapidly, however, and American inventors began to revolutionize the Old World theory of piano structure. The value of the improvements thus effected in the making of pianos has been admitted by the world generally. By testimony of the most eminent musical professors, our own pianos are decidedly superior to those of Europe. The annexed statement is founded on the sworn returns under the internal revenue laws of fifteen widely known manufacturers of New York, Boston and Baltimore. Exclusive of Baltimore, for which we have no returns of pianos, it will be seen that during the year 1866 there were no less than 7,386 pianos made and sold by these fifteen firms of three cities. The sales produced $3,181,092.38, out of which sum was paid a manufacturers' tax of $172,513.33. It is a still more remarkable fact that the leading manufacturer of New York and that of Boston jointly realized by their sales $1,625,440.30, while the other thirteen makers combined sold to the extent of $1,531,643. The two firms belonging to New York and Boston paid, in fact, more than one-half of the government tax collected. The following is the exhibit:

NOTICE.

One of the best Hotel Stands in Kentucky for Sale.

OWING TO CIRCUMSTANCES well known to myself and many friends (but not from pecuniary or any financial circumstances) and being desirous of living in the country, I am induced, and now offer for sale my HOTEL.

In Cynthiana, with all the furniture and fixtures belonging, I can convince any gentleman that it is one of the best paying hotels in the interior of Kentucky. It being located within 200 feet of the depot, it is large and commodious, and capable of accommodating over 200 persons. It is the best location in the city. It is also the breakfast stand for passengers traveling on the K. & C. R. R., and during the summer will be the stage office for a line of stages running from this place to Owensville, Bath County, Ky., by way of Headquarters, Cardale and Sharpburg. Also the travel and stock trade that has heretofore gone to Paris from the counties of Nicholas, Bath, and Montgomery, will all be concentrated at Cynthiana, which will be a large addition to the hotels and add greatly to the welfare of the city.

There is not a more substantially built house in Kentucky, built upon 2 out walls of the best of material 8 feet deep. There is the best of cellars under the whole house. The house is entirely new, having been built in the fall of '63 and the spring of '64. The entire house, kitchen and porches are well protected with fire-proof roofing. Upon the premises there is a never failing well, also a No. 1 cistern that holds 600 barrels of water. Also the largest ice-house in the county, filled with ice.

I will also sell 3 lots fronting on Walnut street, one measuring 22 feet running back 91 feet, with a comfortable 1 1/2 story brick house with a weatherboarded ell attached, containing 5 rooms, this will make a comfortable house for a small family. Also 2 lots adjoining, fronting 26 feet on Walnut street, running back 91 feet, these two lots will make desirable business lots. I will sell the above lots separately or with the hotel, as they are attached to the hotel premises.

I will also sell 7 lots on Pike street, fronting from 21 to 25 feet running back 104 feet, which I will sell altogether or divide them to suit the purchasers.

I can frankly and honestly say that I consider this stand one of the best prospects for an enterprising and industrious man to make a fortune in a few years of any hotel in the interior of Kentucky. I will say further that I will convince any gentleman that wishes to purchase that the receipts of this house for one year will more than pay the purchase money.

Any one wishing to purchase will call and examine the premises, and I will take great pleasure in showing them and giving them the terms. A general warranty deed will be given.

LYON'S PERIODICAL DROPS!

The Great Female Remedy for Irregularities!!!

I HAVE tested these Drops in my own practice, over ten years, and do not hesitate to say, that nothing has yet been developed by medical research, that acts so powerfully, positively and harmlessly, in cases of female irregularity, as does this medicine. In all recent cases it never fails, while thousands who have been long suffering, are indebted to it for the boon of health to-day.

Although so powerful and positive, they perfectly harmless, and may be used at all times, except when specially forbidden in the directions.

They have been extensively employed by eminent physicians in France and England, as well as in my own practice, over ten years, and I have yet to hear of the first instance of failure. I could give you testimonials of their efficacy from ladies all over the Northern and North Western States, were they not in their nature, private. Over 100,000 bottles have been sold the last year, and I hope and trust as many will be sold this year. I am well aware that a remedy so potent, so free from obstructions, may be used with bad purpose, but trust that when one bottle is thus used, ten may fall into the hands of really needy sufferers.

Total who suffer from any irregularity, painful, difficult, excessive, offensive or obstructed menstruation, Leucorrhoea, or the train of diseases that follow, I would say, try a bottle of Dr. Lyon's French Periodical Drops. Being a fluid preparation, their action is more direct and positive than any pills or powders. Explicit directions, bearing my facsimile, accompany each bottle.

They may be obtained of nearly every druggist in the country, or by enclosing the price to C. G. Clark & Co., No. 111 Haven, Ct., General Agents for the United States and Canada.

DR. JOHN L. LYON,
Practicing Physician, New Haven, Ct.
Price $1.50 per Bottle. Mar-28-1y

AFFLICTED SUFFER NO MORE.

When by the use of Dr. Joinville's Elixir you can be cured permanently, and at a trifling cost.

The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine for physical and nervous weakness, general debility and prostration, loss of muscular energy, impotency or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, renders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered.

It will remove all nervous affections, depression, excitement, incapacity to study or business, loss of memory, confusion, thoughts of self-destruction, fears of insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by sensual excess or evil practice.

Young men, be humbugged no more by "Quack Doctors" and ignorant practitioners, but send without delay for the Elixir, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

A perfect cure is guaranteed in every instance. Price $1, or four bottles to one address, $3.

One bottle is sufficient to effect a cure in all ordinary cases.

Also, Dr. Joinville's Specific Pills, for the speedy and permanent cure of gonorrhoea, chronic discharges, gravel, strictures, and all affections of the kidneys and bladder. Cure effected in from one to five days. They are prepared from vegetable extracts that are harmless to the system, and never nauseate the stomach or impregnate the breath. No change of diet is necessary while using them, nor does their action in any manner interfere with business pursuits. Price, $1 per box.

Either of the above mentioned articles will be sent to any address, closely sealed and post-paid, by mail or express, on receipt of price. Address all orders to Berger, Shutt & Co., Chemists, No. 285 River street, Troy, N. Y.

Blue Grass Farm FOR SALE.

THE Farm on which I now reside is for sale. It is situated four miles south of Cynthiana, half a mile from Lairs Station on the Kentucky C. R. Road, at which place there is a post office, express office, depot, saw mill and two excellent grist mills, and manufacture the best quality of flour and meal. It is within 3 hours ride of Cincinnati and 1 1/2 of Lexington. It contains about 175 Acres, one hundred acres well timbered, nicely cleared up and set in blue grass. The remainder cleared and in the highest state of cultivation. The fencing all in good order. The improvements consist of a comfortable dwelling, partly frame and partly log, weatherboarded and plastered and painted, containing six rooms, cook-house and all necessary out buildings including two large stables, (with lots for feed,) large enough to house and feed 75 mules at a time which can be done without going out doors as there is large wide feed rooms extending the whole length of the stables in which there is a cutting box run by horse power, with capacity and strength enough to cut a large quantity of provender in a short time. There is also a young orchard of select fruit of various kinds now bearing. The farm is supplied with abundance of pure water for all purposes as there is upon it a number of never failing springs (some of them near the dwelling) and South Licking which runs along one side of it. Any one wishing to purchase such a farm would do well to call and examine for himself as the place will be sold for a reasonable price, the payments made easy and if desired a part of the money can be run a considerable length of time at moderate interest.
I also desire to sell 400 acres of Land which lies in Lewis county Missouri. Said land is situated about 12 miles from Palmyra on the road leading from there to Monticello and about 16 miles from the Mississippi river about one half of it timbered land, the timber excellent, the balance prairie of good quality, a little rolling & dry—is in a good neighborhood, & is surrounded by old settlers and finely improved farms. There is a large handsome brick church & school house in sight of the land. Also, a small village & post office near by. Price reasonable, payments easy & made to suit the ability & convenience of purchasers. For further particulars call on

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED.

At the wonderful revelations made by the great astrologist, Madame H. A. Perrigo. She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and like-ness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair. Address, Madame H. A. Perrigo, P. O. drawer 293, Buffalo, N. Y.
